EIGHT JOY RIDERS HELD UP, ROBBED BY THEIR GUEST

Stranger Lines Up Companions, Takes Valuables and Orders
Them to Flee in Auto.

TWO ARRESTS ARE MADE

Police Capture Suspect and Hold Bartender Accused of Giving Revolver to Robber.

Eight joy riders were hustled out of an automobile at Chouteau and Ranken avenues at 1:10 a. m. today and were lined up before the muzzle of a revolver by a big, pleasant stranger who had been the ninth member of the jolly party.

He robbed the host, Herbert Constance, proprietor of a drug store at Ranken street and McPherson avenue, and the chauffeur, Joseph Lauer of 2712 Locust street, of their gold watches and took a diamond pin from George Pauth of 3311 Itasca street and 20 cents from Albert Woechele of 725 Marion street.

While he was busy with the first four, the others hid their money and jewelry in their shoes. Finding nothing in their pockets, the highwayman berated them as a "cheap bunch," and then ordered all back into the car and speeded their departure.

More than four hours afterward, policemen found William Kelly of 8331 Otis Brilliant avenue dozing in the saloon of Clarence Owens, 1421 Chouteau avenue, where the party had been shortly before the robbery. Constance and the chauffeur declared he was the man who robbed them. He denied this. The police also arrested Henry Ries of 1839 Papin street, bartender in Owens' place, in the statement of one of the party that he thought he saw Ries hand the money something at the end of the party shortly before the robbery.

EARL HAMILTON SUE FOR $25,000 DAMAGES BY KANSAS CITY CLUB

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 16.—Earl Hamilton, pitcher, who jumped from the St. Louis (American League) baseball team to the Kansas City Federal last week, and rejoined the St. Louis team yesterday, was made the defendant in a damage suit for $25,000, filed in the Circuit Court here today by the local Federal club.

The petition charges Hamilton with violating a contract he signed with the local club. It further alleges that $500 had been advanced to Hamilton and that his contract called for $2,000 for three years' services. The plaintiff, according to the petition, suffered a great loss through Hamilton's return to the St. Louis team as "he is a wonderful pitcher and a great drawing card."

THOUSANDS GATHER AT FEDERAL PARK HOUR BEFORE GAME

Fans Begin to Arrive to Welcome Third Leaguers as Early as 9 O'Clock.

When the gates of the Federal League baseball park at Grand and Laclede avenues opened at 1 p. m. Thursday for the first game of the season, about 500 fans waited in line at the bleacher gates and there was a smaller number about the grand stand entrance.

Within half an hour after the gates opened there were about 1000 persons in the bleachers and about the same number in the grand stand. The seating capacity of the park is said by the management to be 15,000, with total capacity of more than 20,000. Only a few women were among the early arrivals.

At 2:15 p. m. the crowd was estimated at 10,000.

It was planned that Gov. Major would pitch the first ball, with Mayor Kiel acting as catcher. The boxes to be reserved for the Governor, the Mayor and Mayors of 20 towns in the neighborhood of St. Louis were decorated with the national colors.

At 2 p. m., an hour before the time set for the game, it was estimated that 4000 were in the park. At that hour the seats were filling more rapidly in the bleachers, but there were many gaps in the grand stand and the uncovered seats. The crowd cheered when the Indianapolis team filed on the field early, but was not demonstrative, even when the St. Louis players appeared.

The threat that there would be two brass bands was not carried out. One made all the necessary noise.

Some complications were expected when the Indianapolis delegation, headed by the Mayor, the president of the baseball club and several city officials reached St. Louis at 1:35. Reservations had been made for 20 Indianapolis fans, but the delegation on its way threatened to total not a man less than 150. How they will be cared for was one of the tasks that puzzled the local park management.

The crowd began to gather at the park at 9 a. m.

A delegation of 75 "rooters" from Indianapolis had grand stand seats. It was expected only 20 would come and reservations had been made for that number. To take care of the others it was necessary to rope off a section of the reserved seats for them.

COXEY IN MULE RIG ON MARCH TO WASHINGTON

MASSILLON, O., April 16.—Headed by "Gen." and Mrs. Jacob S. Coxey, in an old phaeton drawn by a mule, the second "army" of the commonwealth, about 200 strong, assembled at the call of a bugle in Massillon's business section at 10 o'clock this morning.

From shanties along the railroad tracks outside the city limits, from the Socialist hall and from the city prison, the men gathered. Police authorities released all vagrants from prison who said they would leave town with the "army."

The Rev. Harry L. Wilson of Rockdale, Pa., official chaplain of the "army," offered an invocation before the "army" started on the march to Washington, praying for the success of "General" Coxey's program.

In and out among the ranks of the "soldiers" rode little David Coxey, the 11-year-old son of the "General," clad in khaki and mounted upon a pony. He is the official courier for the "army."

At a mass meeting in the city hall last night, "Gen." Coxey outlined his plans to about 100 persons.

Several thousand persons assembled this morning to witness the departure of the "army." A large corps of newspaper correspondents and moving picture men started on the march with the "army."

ROPE, WEAKENED BY ACID, DROPS MAN 2 STORIES

Stone Cleaner in Hospital After Fall From Missouri Pacific Building.

Hugh Murphy, 29 years old, 911 Market street, fell from a third-floor window of the Missouri-Pacific Building, Seventh and Market streets, to the sidewalk and suffered severe injuries, at 8:30 a. m. Thursday, when a rope weakened by acid, holding a paint ladder, parted and precipitated the ladder and two stone cleaners to the ground. Murphy was taken to the city hospital.

Albert Hecker of 1411 Chouteau avenue had just stepped on the ladder with Murphy and when the rope broke he grasped another line and slid down to the ground. He was not hurt. William Malow, 911 Market street, who had been assisting two other employees of the Enterprise Compressed Air Whitening Co., 1118 Chestnut street, in swinging another ladder on the Market street side of the building, was preparing to mount the ladder a minute before it fell.

A mixture of muriatic acid, pumice stone and water is used in cleaning the stonework and, according to Murphy's fellow workmen, the continual dripping of the liquid on the rope caused the strands to rot and break.

The men worked on the ladder all day Wednesday and the acid in the mixture apparently finished its work during the night, for when Murphy and Hecker stepped through the window their weight on the ladder caused the rope to part at the pulley.

At the city hospital it was found that Murphy was injured internally in addition to his cuts and bruises. He is a son of William Murphy of Hammond, Ind. He came to St. Louis three weeks ago.

Charge O'Shaughnessy Cables He Had
"Cordial and Satisfactory" Conference With Mexican Dictator.

U.S. WILL RETURN SALUTE, FOLLOWING NAVAL CUSTOM

President Wilson's Plans for Naval Action Go
On and Officials Say There Will Be
No Change in Them Until American Demands Actually Are Complied With.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 16.—Huerta has promised Charge O'Shaughnessy to salute the American flag in apology for the arrest of American bluejackets at Tampico.

The news was received at the White House today just as Secretary Bryan and Acting Chairman Shively of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee went into conference with President Wilson.

Unless Huerta changes his mind, the crisis promises to pass over within the next 24 hours.

The only condition attached was that the American ships fire a salute in acknowledgement. Officials close to the President said this was in accordance with naval practice of nations and according to precedent.

It was authoritatively stated that the only point remaining to be determined was the number of guns and that this would be speedily agreed upon. At the State, War and Navy departments, officials considered the crisis passed.

It appeared that Huerta's offer would be accepted, but that the President would have no comment to make until the salute was actually fired.

President Says Advances Are Encouraging.

President Wilson, describing his advances from Mexico as "very encouraging," told callers late today that there was no known precedent against returning a salute, and that in the natural course the United States would return a salute when fired.

The President held that no recognition would be involved in returning Huerta's salute and that when it was fired, the incident would be closed, apologies having been made for previous offenses.

Mr. Wilson denied that at any time during the negotiations prior to today, Huerta offered to fire any salute, though some subordinate officials did attempt to sound out the American government on the question of saluting the Dolphin. That was regarded as a private salute to the Dolphin and not to the American flag, and was declined.

The President made it clear that orders to the Atlantic and Pacific fleets had not been changed.

No time limit has been set for the salute, according to the President, and the final word on the Huerta offer had not passed at 3 p. m.

It was made known that dispatches from Charge O'Shaughnessy have described his conference with Huerta last night as "very cordial and satisfactory," and officials said they were convinced that unless the Charge had misinterpreted Huerta's intentions there was no doubt that compliance with the American demands for apology would be forthcoming within the next few hours and that the crisis would be passed.

The text of the dispatches was not made public, and no formal statement was made describing them.

Ships Won't Be Called Back Until Salute Is Given.

No orders were issued to the ships already steaming toward Mexico, nor was there any change in the plans for enforcing President Wilson's demand. Some officials gave it as their personal view that after Huerta had complied with the demand for apology and saluted the American flag, some of the ships now under way might be turned back, but certainly not before.

It was pointed out that all administration officials were grad-fied by the news that Huerta was about to yield, but that there was no disposition to temporize or delay further, and that all the plans for action would go as they lie until all cause for action had been removed.

Other dispatches from Charge O'Shaughnessy were expected today, but both President Wilson and Secretary Bryan were convinced by the dispatches already at hand that Huerta had yielded to the pressure from Washington and the dispatch of the fleet on both coasts to back up the demands.

Mexican Charge Gets News.
Just about the time O'Shaughnessy's dispatches were being laid before the President, Charge Alzara, representing Huerta here, was advised that some dispatches had been received, but was not fully informed of their nature. He was given to understand that they brought "favorable news."

Word of the promised rift in the storm clouds spread quickly to the Capitol, where the House Foreign Affairs Committee had just adopted a resolution sustaining President Wilson in his attitude.

Several resolutions were proposed, but one voting to sustain the President was adopted unanimously. The resolution will not be taken before the House until the crisis should not clear up finally, and Mr. Wilson should find it necessary to lay the situation before Congress.

In the Senate and House generally there was mingled feeling of gratification and relief. Some officials, because of their long familiarity with the easiness of Huerta, were not inclined to be too sanguine over the dispatches from Charge O'Shaughnessy. Privately, they said they would be convinced when the salute actually was fired, others who knew of the great pressure brought upon Huerta did not question that the dictator had seen the wisdom of yielding.

Those officials who know the language of the communications which Charge O'Shaughnessy has been presenting were sure Huerta had been convinced that if he did not yield the American Government would compel him to do so by force.

Realizes It Is Not a "Bluff."
The last vestige of any suspicion he may have had that the United States was "bluffing" was said to have been removed by messages from his representatives in Washington telling him that President Wilson was thoroughly aroused and meant to force the issue to the end.

It came known that Gen. Huerta had been led to believe that his own statement of apology last Saturday was ample redress; but when President Wilson was apprised of the situation he was not satisfied and demanded a salute.

Before the news of Huerta's yielding came, Washington had been informed that European Powers were advising Huerta to apologize to the United States at once and end a situation threatening grave consequences.

It was well understood in diplomatic circles that Count von Bernstorff and Jules J. Jusserand, the German and French Ambassadors, had been active through their foreign offices in bringing about a relief of the Mexican crisis. Friends of Huerta in the United States, Mexican and others, had telegraphed him that for the best interests of Mexico, the salute should be fired. They had advised him that the United States "meant business" and that there was ample precedent for the firing of the salute without loss of national dignity. They pointed out that the United States once saluted the flag of Spain and the flag of Brazil.

John Lind was at the State Department again conferring with Secretary Bryan.

French Precedent Cited.
As a precedent for returning a salute, the State Department turned to the case of the French Consul at San Francisco who, in 1894, had taken "before a local court in violation of a treaty, France demanded a salute and an apology. "Compromise was reached by which a French flag was sent to San Francisco and the French consul was saluted by the American shore battery. The salute then was returned by the French flag and the incident was closed.

Naval authorities generally favor the return of salutes given in such fashion as part of a national reputation for affront, on the theory that such a salute is an amiable honor and must be met in that spirit by a proper acknowledgment.

Officials pointed out that on occasions when the American Navy had saluted the flag of other nations as a result of difficulties at sea, a salute in response had been fired.

"Not Matter of Recognition."
The only question in Huerta's condition was whether a salute of recognition would constitute recognition, but it was pointed out that the Washington Government considers recognition a matter of intent in each case and would not so regard an acknowledgment of Huerta's salute. Some officials declare that the salute of recognition was not more involved in the demand by the United States for a salute from Huerta than in acknowledging a salute from him.

The disposition of the administration was understood to be to increase the naval forces in Mexican waters somewhat, even after the salute is fired, so that in such an event only part of the ships now steaming south would be turned back.

Custom to Return Salute.
Senator Shively said that it was the international custom to return such a salute as is demanded from the Huerta Government.

"If Huerta yields," said Senator Shively, "and should fire the salute to the flag, that salute, of course, would call for a return salute from the American fleet. Such return salute could in no way be considered as a recognition of the Huerta regime. The Huerta Government is the de facto government and it is the de facto government which has been asked by the United States to salute the American colors. It is the international custom to return such salutes."

Officials pointed out that last week a proposal to salute the Dolphin with the condition that the Dolphin return the salute was rejected. It was explained that the proposal to salute the Dolphin was merely in the form of an inquiry from an under-secretary at the Mexican Foreign Office, that it proposed merely a ship's salute and not a salute to the American colors, as is demanded.

House Committee on Foreign Affairs Sustains President

WASHINGTON, April 16.—The House Foreign Affairs Committee today adopted the following resolution:

Post-Dispatch Correspondent With Fleet

WALTER SCOTT MERIWETHER, a staff correspondent of the Post-Dispatch and New York World, sailed on the Battleship Louisiana today to join Rear Admiral Badger's fleet.

Correspondents of the Associated Press, which serves the Post-Dispatch, are with the main squadron of the fleet which sailed yesterday, one of them being aboard the Battleship Arkansas.

of the Foreign Relations Committee, differed with Acting Chairman Shively. He contended that if Huerta's salute were to be acknowledged the whole apology would be valueless. Lodge maintained it was not a question of precedent.

The Constitutionalist who by their successive victories over the Federal troops dominate Northern Mexico, have as yet taken no part in the present situation, but reports have reached Washington that in the next 24 hours Gen. Carranza and his Cabinet will meet to decide what attitude will be assumed by them toward the dispatch of the American fleets to Mexican waters and the relations between the Huerta Government and the United States generally.

Washington representatives of the Constitutionalist have telegraphed their leaders counseling a careful and cautious policy and suggesting that no pronouncement of any kind be made until the situation is clarified. The Constitutionalist here are emphatic in their expressions that they do not recognize Gen. Huerta's government or his right to conduct the international relations of the country, and that they regard the territory controlled by their forces as not invaded they would take no offensive action. On the other hand, they realize that the illegal situation in Mexico would be gravely complicated if Gen. Huerta should reject the salute.

The Daily Telegraph cannot believe President Wilson intends to put into effect a resolute military intervention and sees no hope of putting an end to the "anarchy" which has resulted from the Wilson policy of moral intervention.

President's Purpose.
The Daily Graphic considers that President Wilson's high moral purpose has landed the United States and the President himself "in a situation of the greatest difficulty and embarrassment." The Graphic continues: "Mexico must now be conquered or left alone. The idea that intervention can be limited to the occupation of Tampico and Vera Cruz is a fresh delusion which will be speedily shattered."

The Standard says: "The big stick that Roosevelt has used so long ago has at last been grasped. The door of peace is still open, but it rests with Huerta to avail himself of the chance." The Daily Mail says: "If President Huerta has the sense with which he is generally credited in Europe he will see no time in making his amends honorable to the United States. That he should deliberately provoke war with an formidable power on the question of a salute seems unthinkable."

Temporary Protectorate.
The Mail thinks that in the event of war and the election of Huerta, a temporary protectorate of Mexico is inevitable.

The Chronicle argues that any foreign state might without loss of dignity have condoned the Tampico affront on receipt of the apology which Huerta has already tendered, and says: "It is, therefore, difficult to disconnect the President's action entirely from the return of Mr. Lind. It is evident that Mr. Lind went home to urge stronger measures, and stronger measures have followed forthwith. They need not involve war. The Americans need only to sit tight at Tampico and Vera Cruz and collect the customs."

With ample precedents for the landing of marines, the shelling of custom houses and even the shelling of towns should the emergency arise, wherein quick action is desirable.

The order for the Pacific fleet to proceed to Mexico was, following so closely on the dispatch of the Atlantic fleet, gave naval officers here plenty of possibilities on which to speculate.

Western Ports Unfortified.
Constitutionalist were interested to learn whether the Pacific fleet would concentrate at ports held by the Federalists, or at Topolobampo, held by the rebels.

Tampico, like most of the towns on the Pacific side, is not fortified, and, according to the Pacific fleet, is a bare, undefended town which would be a target for the guns of the dispatch of so large a naval force to Mexican waters the chief purpose of it was to place the Pacific fleet in a position to make a rapid force of bluejackets and marines for expeditionary movements in case of emergency.

LONDON COMMENT SHOWS SYMPATHY WITH PRESIDENT

Newspapers, However, Charge Mexican Difficulties to Wilson's Idealistic Policy.

LIBERAL PAPER SEVERE

Manchester Guardian Sees Intervention for Symbolic Slight, None for Death.

By Associated Press.
LONDON, April 16.—Contrasting the action of President Wilson in connection with the arrest of American bluejackets at Tampico with what was done when William S. Benson, the British ranch owner, was killed at Tuxtepec, the Manchester Guardian, one of the leading Liberal newspapers, says today:

"Intervention which murder and robbery failed to bring about is apparently to be the punishment for a merely symbolic slight on American dignity."

Expressing its admiration for the ability and the motives of President Wilson, the Guardian says it is impossible to suppress doubts and misgivings on his Mexican policy. It continues:

"Why should Villa murder with impunity and Gen. Huerta be chastised with the whole strength of the right arm of the United States for a mere breach of international politeness? It would be far easier to bring Villa to a better frame of mind than to teach Huerta manners. In the one case it would have been enough to threaten the rebels that the embargo on the exportation of arms and ammunition from the United States would be reimposed; but what sort of guarantee is there that the capture of Tampico by the American fleet will either mend Huerta's manners or relieve the hardships of foreign subjects in Mexico or help any of the interests President Wilson is anxious to serve?"

Excuse for Intervention.
"If the United States is anxious for an excuse for intervention in Mexico, an insult to her flag will serve very well, but no one knows better than President Wilson that armed intervention once begun cannot easily be contained within the limits that are set for it at the beginning. It is next to impossible for one country to make itself partly responsible for the good government of another and independent country."

Most of the London morning papers in their editorial comment on the Mexican situation display sympathy with President Wilson in the difficulties which have arisen with Mexico, while the same time contending that those difficulties were largely created by his idealistic policy. Much curiosity is expressed over the intentions of the United States, because, although it is generally believed Huerta will yield, it is pointed out that should he remain obstinate the intervention of Tampico would not have much practical effect and that the blockade of Vera Cruz would be the only measure that would deal a serious blow to the Huerta regime.

The Daily Telegraph cannot believe President Wilson intends to put into effect a resolute military intervention and sees no hope of putting an end to the "anarchy" which has resulted from the Wilson policy of moral intervention.

With ample precedents for the landing of marines, the shelling of custom houses and even the shelling of towns should the emergency arise, wherein quick action is desirable.

The order for the Pacific fleet to proceed to Mexico was, following so closely on the dispatch of the Atlantic fleet, gave naval officers here plenty of possibilities on which to speculate.

Western Ports Unfortified.
Constitutionalist were interested to learn whether the Pacific fleet would concentrate at ports held by the Federalists, or at Topolobampo, held by the rebels.

Tampico, like most of the towns on the Pacific side, is not fortified, and, according to the Pacific fleet, is a bare, undefended town which would be a target for the guns of the dispatch of so large a naval force to Mexican waters the chief purpose of it was to place the Pacific fleet in a position to make a rapid force of bluejackets and marines for expeditionary movements in case of emergency.

HUERTA'S CENSORS LET ONLY PLEASANT NEWS GET THROUGH

THIS is all of the dispatch filed in Mexico City last night by the Post-Dispatch and New York World special correspondent that the Mexican Government censor allowed to go over the wires.

MEXICO CITY, April 16.—The general situation from this side was apparently unchanged last night. Charge O'Shaughnessy of the American Embassy received several long messages from the State Department today. He refused to communicate them or discuss their contents.

President Huerta's wife held her customary bi-monthly reception at Chapultepec Castle this afternoon. He was there. As usual, the President showed them marked courtesy and escorted them to their motor. No undue excitement or apprehension is exhibited by the designers who seem loath to believe that matters will not be adjusted. As a rule, they are in the dark as to what really is transpiring.

Four Battleships Made Ready at Boston.
BOSTON, April 16.—Work is being hurried on the cleaning of the battleships, Virginia, Nebraska, Rhode Island and Georgia, at the Navy Yard here in view of the announcement from Washington that these vessels of the third division of the Atlantic fleet are to be sent to Mexico.

The Virginia, flagship of Rear Admiral Frank E. Beatty, commanding the division, left the dry dock yesterday and the Georgia was docked today. Some of the guns on the Virginia are to be replaced and large supplies of stores are being taken on board all four ships.

Four Transports at Galveston Coal and Light Piers.
GALVESTON, Tex., April 16.—The transports Klipatrick, McCellan, Meade and Sumner have been ordered provisioned and their bunkers filled. All have fire in their furnaces and could depart on an hour's notice.

It is said several additional licensed engineers have been employed. Galveston banks did a large business today forwarding money to Tampico for Americans and other foreigners who want to leave there. Tampico banks, it is said, virtually have suspended business.

No More American Sailors to Be Allowed Ashore at Vera Cruz.
VERA CRUZ, April 16.—According to information from Federal sources today, no launches with American officers or men are to be allowed ashore until present strained conditions are settled. The Washington Naval Bureau says the Ward Line steamer Esperanza is under orders to remain at sea and not to take refugees out of Tampico, Tuxpam and Coahuila. The vessel is unloading freight and awaiting orders from Consul Canada. It is reported she will proceed to Galveston for orders.

Jackies, Ashore in New York, Delay Sailing of Louisiana.
NEW YORK, April 16.—The battleship Louisiana, under orders to sail for Tampico, Mex., finished coaling early today. The ship's departure was delayed a few hours to pick up more of the shore-leave men.

The Louisiana arrived here April 3, after duty in Mexican waters. The purpose of the visit here was to let the men go ashore.

New Torpedo Boat Destroyer Goes to Station to Await Orders.
PHILADELPHIA, April 16.—The new destroyer Balch, built here and recently placed in commission, sailed from Philadelphia navy yard today for the torpedo station at Newport, R. I. After taking on torpedoes the Balch will be held at Newport for further orders.

WOMEN TELL OF TORTURING OF DOGS BY VIVISECTIONIST

Animals With Gaping Wounds Fed on Fermented Foods, One Witness Says.

MANY PHYSICIANS AT TRIAL

Policemen Testify Against Dr. Sweet of University of Pennsylvania.

Associated Press. PHILADELPHIA, April 16.—The trial of Dr. Joshua E. Sweet, member of the faculty of the medical school of the University of Pennsylvania, charged with cruelty to dogs after vivisection operations, was continued in Quarter Sessions Court here today.

The prosecution was brought at the instance of the Woman's Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. In addition to Dr. Sweet, five other physicians, members of the faculty, are under indictment. Several witnesses previously called in the case have testified to the sufferings of dogs after they had been operated upon.

Prominent physicians, including several trustees of the University of Pennsylvania, attended the trial today. It began at 10 o'clock, during today's proceedings the charges against Dr. Sweet do not involve the question of vivisection, and Judge Dreyer, the presiding judge, announced that he wanted to see any ruling on the lawfulness or unlawfulness of vivisection.

Dog's Wounds Not Closed. Miss Henrietta Ogden, one of the principal witnesses yesterday, continued her description of the dogs she had seen in the animal house of the university during the 36 months she had visited the place. She went there to purchase dogs to prevent them from being operated upon, and also to get evidence.

She always dealt with an employee of the animal house.

The witness told of seeing a dog with a gaping wound. The stitches were loose and strings were hanging from the wound. Other dogs had no control of their limbs, she said. The dogs appeared upon her being fed with food that was fermented and was sour.

Miss Bertha Ogden corroborated much of the sister's testimony, taking up the addition of a number of dogs that had been under her observation. She said she always lay in wait on cement walks in the animal house.

Two policemen testified to having seen the keeper of the animal house take dogs from the hospital of the university and take it to the kennels. One of the policemen saw the keeper feed the sick dogs.

Dogs Fed Fermented Food. Another witness who went to the kennel looking for a lost dog, saw the keeper feed sick dogs with fermented food that appeared to be garbage. This witness said the keeper, in reply to an inquiry why better food was not given the dogs, said the dogs must "take what they get."

Dr. James C. Corliss of Newark, president of the New Jersey Humane Society, gave expert testimony as to the treatment of dogs after operations. He said the treatment given the dogs at the university as described by witnesses was wrong.

The Commonwealth rested and the defense opened its side at the afternoon session of court.

GROGER SHIPS HIS AUTO, TAKES $2300 AND DISAPPEARS

Mrs. Frank Gleischacker Identifies Machine Found in Freight House.

Mrs. Mary Gleischacker of 4600 Varrelman avenue, through the aid of the police, Thursday obtained trace of her husband, Frank, a grocer, who she reported Wednesday had spent Tuesday night away from home, for the first time in the 10 years they had been married.

She said he passed the house at 10 a. m. Tuesday in his automobile and waved his hand at her. When he did not get home Tuesday night she was convinced he had met with an accident.

In an automobile in the Missouri, Kansas & Texas freight house, at Broadway and Mullaplan street, policemen found a card bearing Gleischacker's name. The machine was billed from "James Hogan, St. Louis, to James Hogan, Toledo, O."

They notified Mrs. Gleischacker, who identified the machine as her husband's, and who then informed the police she had learned her husband had drawn $2300 from the bank, and had purchased a 1913 diamond ring and four automobile tires. She said he had charged the ring and three tires to her. She consulted an attorney to see if she could get possession of the automobile, and said she would, telegraph the Toledo police to take her husband into custody.

The Gleischackers own a grocery and saloon at the Varrelman avenue address.

COSTS YOU $5 TO HOP A CAR, NOW, BOYS!

Judge Fines Two and Announces That's Regular Rate for Culprits.

Judge Hennings in the Juvenile Court, Thursday, in finding two 14-year-old boys $5 each for "hopping cars," announced he would enter a fine of $5 against each boy hereafter brought before him on that charge, for he "believed the practice a dangerous one, and that many boys would be killed if it were not stopped."

The boys fined are Clinton Beckemeyer, 114 Park avenue, and John Schallenger, 3640 Arkansas avenue. They were arrested a week ago at Ninth and Olive streets.

TWO MORE COUNTIES DRY

Complete Returns in Michigan Change Results. DETROIT, Mich., April 16.—As a result of recounts of ballots cast in the local option elections of April 6, the "dry" have won two Michigan counties which first returns awarded to the "wets." Wexford and Ogemaw are the counties.

Of the twelve counties voting on the saloon proposition, the "drys" are shown to have been victorious in ten. One county changed from "dry" to "wet," one remained "wet," three voted from "wet" to "dry" and seven remained "dry."

HOMESICK WOMAN, OUT OF WORK, DEAD FROM CHLOROFORM

Miss Jennie M. Shannon Had Not Been Employed for Several Months.

Miss Jennie M. Shannon, 27 years old, formerly a manicure in the Third National Bank Building Barber Shop, was found dead from the effects of chloroform in Mrs. Lulu Heavin's boarding house, 5474 Delmar boulevard, at 10 p. m. Wednesday.

She had been out of employment since December. Her home was in Binkham, N. Y., and her father and brother had been sending money to her for her support.

When Miss Shannon was found dead she lay fully clothed on her bed. Her right hand, holding a piece of cotton saturated with chloroform, was over her mouth and nostrils. In her left hand was an empty chloroform bottle.

Complained of Headache. Mrs. Heavin said Miss Shannon recently had been corresponding with a lawyer in New York State and had said that she expected to visit her home in Binghamton soon. She had frequently complained of homesickness. She had been in St. Louis five years when regularly employed, but always made a visit to her home in the early spring.

Wednesday afternoon she went out, saying she would visit a friend, Mrs. R. L. Williams of 5600 Cates avenue. She returned to her boarding house at 6 p. m. and told Mrs. Heavin and Mrs. Lily Cave, another boarder, that she had a severe headache. She said she would go to her room and lie down and told Mrs. Heavin not to call her for dinner.

Chloroform as Cleaner. Mrs. Cave went to Miss Shannon's room at 10 p. m. to tell her good-night and found her dead. On the bed near her was a photograph of herself. No note was found.

It had been noticed in the last month that Miss Shannon was despondent, Mrs. Heavin said. She told Mrs. Heavin that the brother who had been helping to support her had recently married and that she felt more lonesome than ever. She also frequently referred to the death of her mother three years ago.

Miss Shannon, according to Mrs. Heavin, kept a chamber for cleaning her white kid gloves.

Thursday morning a mail carrier went to the house with a letter for Miss Shannon. It was postmarked at Ithaca, N. Y. When he learned that Miss Shannon was dead he refused to leave the letter.

LEO M. FRANK, BY 11TH HOUR APPEAL, DELAYS EXECUTION

Motion for Annulment of Sentence Acts as Stay to Hanging Set for Tomorrow.

By Associated Press. ATLANTA, Ga., April 16.—Possible basis for appeal of the case of Leo M. Frank, under death sentence for the murder of 14-year-old Mary Phagan, an employe, to the Supreme Court of the United States, was laid in a motion for annulment of his sentence, filed in Superior Court here today.

Frank was under sentence to be hanged at noon tomorrow and this motion automatically stays the execution until the court can pass on the case.

The motion charges that the presiding judge at Frank's trial, L. S. Roan, advised counsel for the defense that in the event their client was found guilty, it would be unsafe for him to be in court when the verdict was announced and that such action was in violation of the Federal Constitution.

The motion was filed by a local law firm not hitherto connected with the case. Attorneys who have been in charge of Frank's defense said the action was taken without their knowledge. They had completed preparations, they said, for filing within a few hours an extraordinary motion for renewal of the writ of habeas corpus.

renewal of the writ of habeas corpus.

The motion was filed by a local law firm not hitherto connected with the case. Attorneys who have been in charge of Frank's defense said the action was taken without their knowledge. They had completed preparations, they said, for filing within a few hours an extraordinary motion for renewal of the writ of habeas corpus.

a new trial on the ground of newly discovered evidence.

It is expected that if the motion for annulment is denied, appeal will be taken to the Supreme Court of Georgia, which probably would delay the case several months.

The Supreme Court already has confirmed the young factory superintendent's conviction, but the point raised by the motion today was not brought before that tribunal. Neither was it included in the copy of the extraordinary motion previously filed.

Frank's presence in court when a verdict in his case was announced on Aug. 2 last, was waived by counsel for both prosecution and defense. The motion argues that these waivers did not make the proceedings legal.

Home-owning is in more minds today than ever before. If you have real estate to sell, a good many Post-Dispatch ad readers are watching the offers to learn about it!

Sale of Silk Suits—$22.50 and $32.50

We have sold an immense quantity of Silk Suits this season, and because of this fact, many manufacturers are giving this store the preference over all others—at this time when it is almost impossible to get silks of good quality.

It is owing to this fact alone that we can now offer such remarkable values—remarkable because the silks are of very fine quality and the styles excellent.

In addition to the special purchases made for this sale, we have also reduced a number of our higher-priced garments to make this Friday event more attractive.

$29.75 to $39.75

Silk Suits

Thirteen distinct models—one of which is here illustrated at left—made of taffeta. The jacket shows the new slightly lengthened back effect, with an effective shawl collar and bow in front. The skirt is in the new, lengthened tunic effect.

The other styles are equally attractive, made of failles, moires and taffeta, of good quality. Regular $29.75 to $39.75 Suits on sale Friday at $22.50

$39.75 to $55

Silk Suits

$32.50

About nine distinct models, each one showing the very newest style features as promulgated by Parisian designers, and with the best of workmanship.

The suit illustrated (center) is especially attractive by reason of the double collar and belt effect, which gives a most unusual appearance to the jacket. There are many other equally pretty styles in this group at $32.50 (Third Floor.)

MRS. E. L. AVERY IS DEAD

Member of Mrs. Jon E. Gorse
Was 87 Years Old.
Mrs. E. L. Avery, 87 years old, died at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gorse, 613½ Elm avenue, Wednesday night, after a illness of a few days. The funeral services will be at the Church of the Holy Trinity, Park and Armstrong avenues, at 10 a. m. Friday, the Rev. G. R. Dodson officiating.
Mrs. Avery was born in Malden, Mass., and was the widow of Alfred A. Avery, who was one of the first editors of an agricultural paper in the United States. She published the South and West in Louisville and later in St. Louis. Mrs. Avery was her only child. Three years ago Mrs. Avery's sister, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Lewis, died, having lived exactly as long as did Mrs. Avery.

$1,875,000 Losses by Flames in Fire Wave on Long Island

THE fire record in the wave on Long Island, which has resulted in a loss of $1,875,000, follows:

April 15—Southampton, Mrs. P. F. Collier, $40,000.

April 15—Great Neck, Stephen H. Burgoyne, $35,000.

April 14—Locust Valley, Paul D. Cravath, $50,000.

April 14—Huntington, Raymond E. Baylis, $30,000.

April 9—Great Neck, E. R. Chapman, $70,000.

April 8—Cedarhurst, Mrs. Jessica Taylor, $50,000.

Feb. 18—Jericho, Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt Jr., $200,000.

Jan. 26—Port Washington, shipyards and pleasure craft of millionaires, $200,000.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, April 16.—An extraordinary fire wave has been sweeping the country homes of the wealthy residents of Long Island in the last few months, in this month alone causing losses of more than $1,000,000 and since the latter part of January, losses amounting to $1,875,000.

Fast upon the destruction of the $500,000 home of Paul D. Cravath at Locust Valley Tuesday night, came reports of three other fires in which more than $100,000 worth of property was destroyed.

The new victims added to the rapidly lengthening list are Mrs. P. F. Collier, widow of the publisher, whose summer home at Southampton was destroyed, with all its furnishings, yesterday afternoon; Stephen H. Burgoyne, a descendant of Gen. Burgoyne, whose home at Elm Point, Great Neck, was likewise destroyed last night; and Raymond E. Baylis of Brooklyn, whose summer residence at Halesite, overlooking Huntington Harbor, was badly damaged late Tuesday night and the garage and several adjoining garages destroyed.

These, with the $70,000 damages caused by four incendiary fires on the estate of Elverton R. Chapman at Great Neck and the destruction of the Jessica Taylor's $500,000 house at Cedarhurst April 3, make the total fire damages to the homes of the wealthy in two weeks figure at $1,875,000.

February saw the burning of the house of Mrs. William C. Vanderbilt Jr., at Jericho, with a loss of $50,000, and January the fire at the ship yards in Port Washington, where not only the yards were destroyed but several yachts belonging to millionaires, causing a total damage of $200,000.

Accidents and carelessness have been held responsible for all except four fires started on the estate of Elverton R. Chapman. Chapman, who is president of the Hudson Trust Co. of Manhattan, has expressed the opinion that the fires on his estate have been caused by discharged employees seeking to discredit the administration of a new superintendent on the estate.

A maid dropping a lighted candle is reported to have been the cause of the fire that set the residence of Stephen H. Burgoyne ablaze last night. Burgoyne, who is a retired real estate dealer, and his wife had barely time to escape from the dinner table, so swiftly did the flames leap through the house.

GATH, NEWSPAPER WAR CORRESPONDENT, IS DEAD

George Frederick Townsend "Covered" Battles of Rebellion and Austro-Prussian War.

NEW YORK, April 16.—George Alfred Townsend, known in Civil War and later days as Gath, because his articles in newspapers and magazines were signed that way, died yesterday afternoon at the age of 73 years at his home here.

Townsend gained fame as Civil War correspondent for the New York Herald. He described both battles of Bull Run and other encounters in the war and was one of the reporters who followed the trial of John Wilkes Booth, assassin of Lincoln.

He "covered" the Austro-Prussian War for the New York World, during that war ended, he went to Washington, where he served as a correspondent for many years. Meantime, however, he devoted much time to writing, romance, poetry and historical essays.

"G-E-M-D-N-D"

It Means

Golden Egg Machine Dried Noodle Day

and Friday Is the Day!

Friday is the day that the good grocers of St. Louis have set apart on which to call your attention to the extra goodness and absolute purity of

GOLDEN EGG

THE MACHINE DRIED

NOODLES

Golden Egg Machine Dried Noodles are made with real eggs. They are not simply artificially colored to look like egg noodles. They haven't a speck of adulteration or deception in them. When you serve them to your family you know you are not serving anything which can be questioned.

Gold Egg Machine Dried Noodles have the rich, unmistakable egg flavor which cannot be given them by artificial coloring, which deceives the eye but cannot fool the palate.

Go to your grocer Friday, or telephone him, and tell him that you want a package of Golden Egg Machine Dried Noodles. They are the only noodles dried in hermetically sealed machines, perfectly protected from dust and impurities. They are clean, rich and wholesome—and they are true egg noodles.

Be sure to tell your grocer that you want the splendid booklet of recipes which we give free Friday with each package.

Get your package of Golden Egg Noodles, try them, and if you do not say they are perfect—if for any reason you are dissatisfied with them, your grocer is authorized to refund your money without question if you will return the package and the unused portion of the contents. That shows how firmly we believe in your satisfaction with our product.

Friday is Golden Egg Noodle Day. Get your package and give your family a treat. You'll make it a habit to have this delicious dish at least once a week—and our splendid free booklet of recipes will tell you many different ways to serve them.

LOSES $300 PLAYING BANKER FOR 2 OTHERS

Man Finds Only Paper in Handkerchief He Supposed Contained $600.

Charles W. Bommarito, 1227 North Seventh street, reported to the police Thursday that two strangers stole $300 from him by one of the oldest tricks known to the police. Bommarito was approached Friday night by two countrymen, one of whom was weeping. The man told him that he was looking for an honest man to take care of his money. Bommarito advised him to put the money in a bank, but the stranger said he had no confidence in banks.

The next morning the men returned and again asked Bommarito to take the money. He consented, but the men said that as evidence of good faith he should put $300 of his own money with it, and that they would tie it up in a handkerchief, which Bommarito should keep. Bommarito withdrew $300 from the bank and the three together, Bommarito, thought, put the $600 in the handkerchief. Bommarito later discovered the handkerchief contained only scraps of paper.

'BURGLARY' PROVES TO BE MERE TRYST, 'ROMEO' FINED $5

Man Arrested on Porch Top Says He Dropped There From Tree to Keep Engagement.

On evidence that Andrew de Florin of 2621 Oxford avenue was a Romeo and not a burglar the charge of burglary against him in Justice Worcester's court at Clayton was reduced to peacetime disturbance, Thursday, and he was fined $5 and costs. De Florin was arrested on the porch of Charles F. Baker's home in Maplewood the night of April 4. He explained in court that he had an engagement to make his first call on a young woman and that he went to the wrong house.

The capture of De Florin at the time caused considerable excitement in Maplewood. Circumstantial evidence seemed to be all against him. He was on the roof of the Baker porch and, more than that, in the sudden flare of a locomotive headlight he was seen by neighbors to drop onto the roof from the limb of a tree overhanging it. He was captured and sent to the lock-up.

At first he would make no defense but later he confided to his attorney and the prosecuting officials that he was trying to shield the name of a young woman. He said that shortly before the night of his arrest he had met this young woman and asked permission to call on her.

A sort of Romeo and Juliet arrangement was made by which she was to put a lighted lamp in her casement window as a signal of her willingness to receive a call from him.

On the appointed night De Florin climbed into a tree, the better to observe the window. When he saw a light flash forth from the window almost in front of him he dropped to the roof of Baker's porch. It was the wrong house, but he didn't know it.

De Florin did not reveal the name or address of the young woman who planned to signal him with a lamp. He is not even sure, he says, that she lived on the same street as the Baker family.

SALOON LICENSE REPORT STIRS UNIVERSITY CITY

Aldermen Said to Have Granted License to Open Old Louisiana Club.

There was much comment in University City, Thursday, when a report became current that the Board of Aldermen, at its meeting Sunday night, granted to John Galliot of 6515 Barmen avenue a license to operate a saloon at 6601 Delmar avenue, the old home of the Louisiana Club.

In September, 1912, Edwin W. Mills, then Prosecuting Attorney of St. Louis County, obtained a perpetual injunction restraining Galliot, Mark Gumberts Jr., Charles J. Cella and nine others from operating a saloon on the Louisiana Club premises.

Before Galliot can use his University City license he will have to obtain a county license from the Excise Board. Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Mooney Thursday said he believed that Galliot is a "straw man" acting for other interests.

Galliot is a laborer at Washington University. Mooney says that recently Galliot admitted to him that he was acting for others in asking for a saloon license. If this is found to be the case, Mooney says he will oppose Galliot's license when it goes before the County Excise Board.

RICHEST RANCHER DIES

Texas Built Four Towns and Left $4,000,000.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., April 16.—Robert Driscoll of Driscoll, Tex., probably the State's wealthiest stockman, died yesterday at the Menger Hotel in San Antonio. He was a millionaire and his estate will go to his two children, Mrs. Hal Sevier of New York City and Robert Driscoll of Driscoll.

He was 72 years old and a Confederate veteran. He was a native of Texas. In his 50 years as a stockman Mr. Driscoll acquired six big ranches. His estate is valued at between $4,000,000 and $5,000,000. He built three Texas towns.

MAN IS FINE $25 FOR KEEPING PIGEONS

Neighbors Declare They're Nuisance and He Says He'll Move to Country.

Henry Repe of 4422 Delmar boulevard pleaded guilty in the Dayton Street Police Court Thursday to the charge of permitting his pigeons to become a nuisance and was fined $25 by Judge Sanders. The fine was stayed until May 11 on condition he moves them.

These neighbors of Repe complained: Louis Abel, 4422 Delmar; W. C. Bragdon, 4422 Delmar; Paul Brown, 4414 Delmar; A. Schlessinger, 4413 Delmar, and John J. Shea, 4233 Arco avenue.

Repe admitted he had received an order from the Health Department Dec. 26 to abate the nuisance within 10 days, but said he thought all he had to do was to clean up the pigeon yard. He says he will move to the country and take the pigeons with him.

CZAREVITCH IS WELL NOW, NAVY OFFICER SAYS

No Trace, He Reports, of the Former Stiffness of Knee; Lad Looks Robust.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 16.—A naval officer from Sebastopol, who saw the Czar's little son there the other day, says the Czarvitch appears to have fully recovered his health, that he has lost the pallor he showed when the court left Livadia last autumn, and has now a fresh healthy appearance. His physical movements are free and there is no apparent trace of the former stiffness in the left knee.

A story is current that the Czar introduced a General to his son and left the room, whereupon the boy turned to the General and asked: "Would you like to see how I can run?"

Without waiting for an answer the Czarvitch ran away from the General.

FOREIGN SURGEONS' TOUR

Delegates to World Congress in New York to See America.

NEW YORK, April 16.—The fourth congress of the International Surgical Association came to an end today. Among the late arrivals at the congress was Prof. Arthur Schuller of Vienna, the X-ray expert. Prof. Schuller, it was said, made the first X-ray photograph of the human brain.

Parties of the foreign surgeons planned to start today on a brief tour of the country before sailing for their homes.

Important Suit Sale

WE are prepared to save you from $5 to $10 on your Friday Suit purchase. This is brought about by our after-Easter stock rearrangement, resulting in the grouping of many of our high-priced garments at popular prices.

Suits to $15

It is hard to understand how suits of the character of these can be offered at so low a price. Smartly tailored of good wearing serges in navy, Copenhagen, tango, brown, tan, black and gray mixtures. Tailored, demi-tailored and fancy styles, the latter showing the tunic skirt, and jaunty jacket. Collars of lace. Linings of satin and peau de cygne. Account the very low price we cannot alter these suits. You will find them so well made, however, that they will require little or no alteration.

Suits to $24.75

An assortment that you would expect to find only at a much higher price and so have many of the suits been gathered from garments selling to $24.75. Beautifully trimmed styles in crepe, novelty cloth, checks, fine serge, gaberdines. Fancy collars and cuffs, unusual coat touches to make them stand out from hundreds of other suits. There are some plainly tailored and demi-tailored suits in the lot. The workmanship in each case is the best, materials are the kind that stand wear. All the light and dark shades. All sizes.

Beautiful Dresses, $12.75
Worth up to $22.50

We cannot too strongly emphasize the values in this Friday Dress offering. Beautiful taffetas, crepe meteor, crepe de chine, silk poplin, faille, charmeuse, in the most fascinating style variety. The bustle back, tunics, quaint ruffles are used unsparingly. Blouses show plenty of white at throat and wrist and down the front. All the solid colors with many flowered effects and color combinations.

$2.95 and $4.95

Worth Up to $9.50

You could not buy the material and make the skirts at any such price. The cuts give you an idea of the style variety. All the wanted materials have been used in the manufacture in plain colors, checks and stunning plaids. There are plenty plain models for such as prefer them. All the skirts are splendidly made and you can feel sure of a saving of from $2 to $5 on any one of them.

Beautiful New Blouses

Dozens of Blouses of fresh white voile, some with white and colored embroidered flowers on the surface. Moderately plain and fancy styles. A

We can scarcely supply the demand for Blouses at this price of good quality voile, trimmings of lace in endless style variety. Many are reproductions of waists that bring $5—

all sizes. Very special. $1.98

Crepe de chine and taffeta silk Blouses in all the light and dark shades. A few all-over lace ones in the lot. The newest styles only. All sizes. $2.98

A great bargain. PUFELES CLOAK CO. Washington at Sixth

A Special Sale of SUITS

A Sale That Will "Show" How "Radical" We Can be When We Want to "Start Something." AND when we say "RADICAL" we mean values that one would hardly expect, even at the season's end, much less right at the season's height. And these values are not confined to one extreme, lone line. We're going to give "VALUES" in the LOW-PRICED Suits, in the popular or medium kind, and in the HIGH-CLASS lines.

But, to the Point—Here is the "Story"
$12.50 and $15 Silk-Lined Suits

FOR $6.00

SIX DOLLARS?

Yes—the silk lining alone would cost more. But it's the manufacturer that lost money. And we're not making a whole lot at the price. But we want to give you a value that you'll remember.

These Suits are made of fine, all-wool, double-warp serge, in navy and black, wide-wale serges, Bedford, and checks. Jaunty short coats, straight-line, boxie effects, semi-belted models, rounded cutaway, button trimmed, etc. Tunic, tier and pegtop skirts; trimmed in accord with coat. 300 of these $12.50 and $15.00 Suits. Special for Friday.

$6.00

Popular Priced Suits

$19.95 to $25.00 Suits . . . $14.90

These Suits are copies of much higher priced models. They come in crepes, serges, Bedfords, in all the desirable colors; one style is a striking combination of silk poplin and crepe with short coat and triple tier skirt; another style is a combination crinkled wool crepe and moire silk, in navy and marine blue; some have belted or semi-girdle back and others in the smart tailor-made. Suits that are shape retaining and fit without alteration. Sizes for women, misses and juniors.

High-Class Suits

Silk and Cloth Suits, $29.50 to $35.00 Values . . . $18.90

Moire Silk—Cloth or combination of silk and cloth, in 42 styles. Light and dark greens, blues, wistaria, tango and the staple shades. Some have corded collars with dainty embroidery, others with bright silk or lace trimming. Coats are crepe or silk lined, mostly short; Skirts in tier and bouffant style. All sizes.

Silk and Cloth Coats

$15.00, $10.00 and $7.98

We're "making history" with these three particular lines. Women who have been accustomed to paying $25.00 to $35.00 for their silk coats are "learning something," just by seeing these lines. Plain and moire taffeta and poplin, soft faille silk in black and colors, plain and fancy models, single and double ruffles, high frill collars, etc., cloth coats come in brocade and plain eponge, serge, tweeds, golfing corduroy, stripes, checks, mixtures; all sizes for juniors, misses and women, $7.98, $10.00 and $15.00.

$10.00 Serge Coats, $5.98

Full box models, 3/4 and 5/8 lengths, rounded front; some with extra detachable collar of Arabian lace. Colors are navy, Hague and black. All sizes.

The Country Club Cape

Has "caught-on" with the smart set. They're to be quite the thing with the golf enthusiasts, for club luncheons, dinners, etc. They come in corduroy, broadcloth, silk, Scotch plaids and stripes, with vest or detachable sleeveless coat in contrasting color. We are showing a wide range of styles and cloths at $19.95 and $25.

New China Silk Waists

The popular waist of the moment—several new models, in black, white and pastel shades—on sale Friday morning . . . $1.98

THIEF LOCKS DOOR, SMASHES WINDOW, GETS $15,000 GEMS

Jewelry Store Customers Chained Inside While Robber Works From Street.

NEW YORK, April 16.—Six customers, one of whom is said to have been Nat Goodwin, were looking over jewelry in Rosenthal's curiosity shop on Broadway, three doors below Thirty-seventh street, last evening, when a young man, wearing a raincoat and soft hat, appeared outside the show window.

In the shop besides the customers were four clerks and a girl cashier. The man entered the vestibule, drew a long chain from his pocket, made a loop in the chain and placing it around the door knob, drew tight on the iron bar, fastening the door so it could not be opened from the inside. To make sure the chain would not slip he put a padlock on it.

Because of the storm not many persons were on Broadway. After chaining the door the man stepped outside the vestibule and looked into the window, where there were many trays of jewelry. Then, just as one of the customers tried to leave the store, the man threw a brick through the show window and took the most valuable jewelry on display.

Customers and clerks, startled by the sound of shattered glass, screamed. Several of the men sounded police whistles. A patrolman, half a block away, heard the whistles, and as he approached the robber ran into the Sheridan Building which runs through to Sixth avenue. There the man closed two swinging doors and fled them with a rope. While the patrolman rattled at the doors the robber escaped through the hall and out the Sixth avenue entrance.

Persons in the jewelry store say the robber appeared to be not more than 20 or 25 years old.

Rosenthal said it was impossible for him to accurately estimate the value of the stolen jewelry, but said it would be between $15,000 and $20,000.

Aviator Freed From Arrest. NEW YORK, April 16.—Guy Gilpatrick, a youthful aviator who shocked the police in Central Park Tuesday by dropping his airplane there, was discharged from arrest yesterday. He was convicted by the magistrate that he was forced to land during a flight from Garden City, L. I., and promised to cart his machine away at once.

MISS SARAH TALBOT KAVANAUGH, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Kerr Kavanaugh of St. Louis, and Walter Valentine Churchill-Longman, son of the late H. B. Churchill-Longman of Breasau and London, were married Wednesday at noon in St. George's Church, Courtfield, London. Miss Kavanaugh went abroad with her mother last April for a year's study and travel before making her debut here. She attended Mary Institute for a number of years and went to a fashionable finishing school in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Kavanaugh and her daughter were guests of Sir Robert and Lady Hatfield and Lady Hatfield's sister, Miss Lily Wickersham, in London, from May until August, and while there that Miss Kavanaugh and Mr. Churchill-Longman met. Mrs. Kavanaugh and her daughter spent the winter in Berlin and went back to London, where Mrs. Wickersham joined them for the wedding. Mr. Kavanaugh was to have gone over for the nuptials but at the last minute his affairs detained him here.

Miss Kavanaugh is the third St. Louis girl of a prominent family within a year to marry an Englishman. Miss Edwina Thornborough and Sir Wilfrid Peck were married May 7. The marriage of Miss Isabel Valle and James Hope-Nelson was on Sept. 27. Mr. Churchill-Longman's family included the Marlboroughs, Churchills and Wyndhams, and the Duke of Norfolk is a member of the same house. Mr. Churchill-Longman and his bride will live in England.

Miss Aurilla Brigham, who has been attending school for the past year in Paris, has returned home. She was met in New York by her mother, Mrs. George Brigham Jr. of 2101 Blenden place.

Open Echo Country Club has announced a dinner dance for Saturday evening from 9 o'clock to midnight. Mrs. A. Buschman of 427 Morgan street and Mrs. John Zimmerman departed Wednesday for French Lick Springs for a two weeks' stay.

Miss Rosamond Landau of Bend, Ill., is the guest of Miss Julia Archibauer of 5753 Waterman avenue.

The Junior Auxiliary of the Church of the Ascension will give a play, "The Little Princess," by Frances Hodgson Burnett, on April 25, at 8 p. m., at the parish hall, Cates and Goodfellow avenues. Those who will take part are Mrs. Roy Campbell in the title role; Mrs. F. Goodrich and Misses Clara Hart, Reta Sutherland, Virginia Doud, Alice and Grace Brady and Dorothy St. Clair.

Miss Blanche M. Keene, daughter of Mrs. Monta B. Keene of 5386 Page boulevard, and J. G. Taylor Spink were married Wednesday afternoon at five minutes before 5 o'clock at St. Peter's Episcopal Church by the Rev. Z. B. T. Phillips, pastor of the church. Lebeau Christie was the bridegroom's best man and Mrs. Russell Edwards was matron of honor.

After the ceremony there was a bridal dinner at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Spink of 2325 Lindell boulevard. Mr. Spink and his bride have gone to

Chicago for a fortnight and, upon their return, will take possession of their apartment, which the bridegroom's father has furnished for them at 5797

Westminster place. Miss Frances Spink, the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Spink, returned from school at Ogontz, Pa., for the wedding and to spend the Easter holidays with Miss Dorothy Crawford of Terre Haute, Ind., a schoolmate, arrived Thursday to make her a visit.

the impeachment and removal from office of former Gov. William Sulzer.

The proceedings, which were instituted by Sulzer himself in an effort to have the United States Supreme Court pass on the validity of the impeachment, were brought against William S. Sohmer, the State Comptroller, to compel him to pay the former executive the salary of Governor from the date of his removal. Sulzer has drawn an Assemblyman's salary from the State in the meantime.

A peculiar feature of the action is that the judges of the Court of Appeals, who were members of the Court of Impeachment, are asked to set aside the verdict for which they voted when Sulzer was removed from office.

In his brief, opposing the Sulzer request, Attorney-General Carmody argued that the courts of the State had no right to review the determination of the Court of Impeachment, and that Sulzer abandoned the office of Governor by ac-quiescing in the judgment of the impeachment court and accepting the office of member of the Assembly.

Alexander S. Bacon, in behalf of the former Governor, raised practically all the questions which were submitted by Sulzer's counsel in the court of impeachment.

Taking up the question of Sulzer's relinquishing his claim to the governorship
by becoming a member of the Assembly, Bacon's brief held that this case could not be classed with those in which a man deliberately abandons office by accepting another.

"Did Nothing Willingly."
"Gov. Sulzer was ousted," the brief
continued. "He did nothing willingly
if he had not left the executive chamber and the executive mansion, the clubs of policemen and the bayonets of the National Guard would have put him out."

Bacon also contended that the court of impeachment was limited in its jurisdiction and its acts could be reviewed by the State and federal judiciary.

Officials Unable to Account for Report "That She Had Sprung
Leak at Sea."

NEW YORK, April 15.—When the steamer Niagara arrived here from Havre her officers reiterated denials of reports that she had been in trouble during her voyage. On April 12 a message from London said the steamer had sprung a leak and was making for the Azores.

Officials of the French line are unable to account for the origin of the report of an accident.

WOMAN GROCER ROBBED

Shows Man Boxes in Gellar and Companion Gets $8.

A man and a boy robbed Mrs. Anna
Johnson, a grocer, at 329 Hickory street, Wednesday afternoon. They entered about 4 o'clock and asked Mrs.
Johnson if she had empty boxes for sale. She accompanied the man into the cellar and the boy remained in the store.

After looking at several soap boxes,
the man departed, saying he would return. Meanwhile, the boy disappeared, and Mrs. Johnson discovered $8 had been taken from her cash till.

VENIRE FOR EAST SIDE GRAFT CASES
IS KEPT SECRET
Names of Men to Be Called for Jury Duty Withheld for First
Time by the Court.
For the first time in the history of the East St. Louis City Court, the names of 50 veniremen called for municipal graft cases next week have been kept secret. They will not be made public until court convenes Monday.

William J. Veach, Clerk of the Court, refused to comment on the secrecy, but said that he took the action on his own initiative.
The first case set for trial is not a graft case and it is thought it probably will not go to trial. It is the case against Nicholas Cantillon and Ruth Harris, known as "Saloma," who are charged with setting fire to Cantillon's saloon and cafe in East St. Louis last July.
The next case, also set for Monday, is a charge of burglary and larceny and receiving stolen property against Chief of Detectives Lester J. Grigsby and Walter Hankins, a saloon keeper. At a former trial of this case a juror attempted to kill himself and a new trial
became necessary.
A charge against Alderman William Dugan of having an illegal contract with the city is set for trial Tuesday and the case against Alderman Claus E.

Tietje, on a similar charge, is on the docket for Wednesday. Thursday has been set for the trial of Alderman Rudolph Huschle, who also is accused of having an illegal contract with the city.

U.S. INSPECTED
AND SEaled
UNDER THE ACT
OF CONGRESS
OCTOBER 3, 1917

Armour's STAR HAM

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo., April 16.—
The prosecution in the trial of Ella McClendon in the United States District Court, on the charge of forging the mails, to defraud, the Government was said this morning to be somewhat uneasy over the reported receipt of letters by the Federal commission in this city, presumably coming from Ed Elders, which contain statements that he uttered the checks and that Miss McClendon is not guilty.
The Government has introduced evidence in an attempt to prove that Ella McClendon is herself the Ed Elders to whom three checks were made payable,
two of them drawn by well-known men of the Sturdivant community and one for $1000, presumably by John Rohan, a wealthy stockman, who died at Gower, Mo., early in 1913.

The letters received by the Federal Commissioner were turned over by him,
it is said, to the attorneys for Miss McClendon. It is supposed they will be introduced by the defense when the Government rests its case today.
District Attorney Houts Wednesday afternoon read a deposition by Miss Mc-Clendon after her arrest, in which she described John Rohan who she said had visited her at her home in Sturdivant in 1908, the time she alleged he gave her a note for $800 in payment of mining stock. The deposition said that Rohan was between 40 and 50 years of age and looked like an Irishman.

Mrs. Jane Munkres, a relative of Rohan, who was present when he died in North Missouri last year, testified that Rohan was more than 30 years old and very feeble in 1908.

At the time he was alleged by Miss McClendon to be at Sturdivant Mrs.
Munkres said she was at his bedside.
It is thought the case will go to the jury last this evening.

"Mystery Woman" for a Year.
Ella McClendon has been the "mystery woman" of Southeast Missouri for more than a year. Her name is known to perhaps every banker in the Cape Girardeau county seat south to the Arkansas line, for it has been connected, rightly or wrongly, with many curious transactions.

She has lived in the village of Sturdiv-ant, Bollinger county, where she keeps a general store, most of her life. She has an unsophisticated air about her,
which conceals her well-known business astuteness. Two things lifted her case out of local interest, however. One was her claim to $35,000 under will, of a large part of the estate of George M. Nicholas, a wealthy Virginia planter, who died of arsenical poisoning. The other was her connection with a check for $1000 by John Rohan, a wealthy Colorado man, who died at Gower, Mo.,
some time before the check was presented. Both Rohan and Nicholas were past 70 years of age when they died.

The Rohan check brought her arrest by the Federal authorities. It was made payable to one Ed Elders, a mysterious person whom nobody has been able to find. A decoy letter sent by the bank on which it was drawn was traced, postoffice inspectors say, to Ella McClendon. The Government charges that she was Ed Elders. A note for $800, payable to Ella McClendon, bearing a signature purporting to be that of Rohan, also turned up after his death.

Said She Nursed Nicholas.
The Nicholas will turned up some time after the planter's death. It was sent by an anonymous person, who wrote that he had robbed Nicholas of the will, among other papers, and added that when he saw a woman was made beneficiary, he had no wish to do her an injustice.
Ella McClendon told a Post-Dispatch reporter that she met Nicholas when he was hurt in a street accident in St.
Louis, nursed him and that he fell in love with her. She said she expected him to ask her to marry him. She could not remember the place where the St.
Louis accident happened.

Within the last few years there has been an epidemic of small check forgeries in Southwest Missouri. One of them was on a check for $600 on a Cape Girardeau bank, payable to "Elsie Whitaker." "Elsie Whitaker" never has been found.

CARLOADS OF THESE BOOKS

THINK OF IT! Big carloads of books shipped to The POST-DISPATCH to supply the demand for this great educational reference work, PEOPLE'S CYCLOPEDIA. And there are more to follow, for it is the hope of THE NATIONAL NEWSPAPER SYNDICATE, through the far-reaching channels of THE POST-DISPATCH, to place a set of this wonderful storehouse of knowledge in every home in St. Louis within the next few days. The POST-DISPATCH receives not one penny of profit from the distribution.
It is an educational movement of national scope, and only through the co-operation of such public-spirited newspapers could such a tremendous undertaking be successfully accomplished in this city.

PERSON, EVERY THING worth knowing from the Creation to the present day. It covers the whole World from the American viewpoint and is the MODERN MARVEL of concise and COMPREHENSIVE INFORMATION for the progressive American people. This is a WORK to READ and for constant reference. It is therefore printed on the extra thin paper, making a volume that can be handled without effort.
YOU will find it intensely INTERESTING, PRACTICAL AND VALUABLE.

SUPERB COLOR PLATES SPECIAL FEATURES

These copyrighted plates are an innovation and have been especially painted by noted artists for this work. More than 500 subjects are shown on these colored pages.
Prize Winning Animals—These embrace a double page of 44 leading breeds of dogs. Other pages are devoted to domestic poultry, cattle and horses. Specialists have made these original life-like paintings at great expense.
Plants of Commercial Value—On this color plate are shown plants, blossoms and fruits of vanilla, cotton, tobacco, flax, hops, cocoa, tea,
coffee, hemp, maize, etc.
Among the scores of special and exclusive features found in PEOP-LE'S CYCLOPEDIA one of the most interesting is a series of colored charts scattered through the five volumes.
These charts show at a glance, among other things, the statistics covering tobacco products, comparative wealth, wheat, coal, wool, pig iron, silver, tea, coffee, corn, oats, gold and silver money, armies and navies. The charts show the figures of all countries as well as those by States of the United States.
A special page chart shows the value in dollars of all agricultural products in each State.

$50,000 BUSCH GIFT FOR OPERA HOUSE SUGGESTED

E. A. Faust Says He Would Recommend Executors Keep Pledge to Aid Project.

HE PREDICTS SUCCESS

Brewing Association Official Favors Subscription to a $500,000 Building.

Edward A. Faust, first vice-president of the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association, Thursday told a Post-Dispatch reporter that under certain conditions he would recommend to the executors and trustees of the Adolphus Busch estate that the pledge made by Busch to subscribe $50,000 toward the building of a grand opera house in St. Louis be kept, although Busch made no provision for the subscription in his will.

Faust is vice-chairman of a committee which is raising funds to build a grand opera house.

At Sheldon Memorial Monday night Faust spoke of the grand opera project to members of the newly organized Art League, who had assembled to hear a lecture by Lorado Taft, noted Chicago sculptor.

"I feel that I might almost promise that St. Louis will have a monumental home for grand opera within two years," he said. There was much applause and many in the audience considered that Faust's expression was a pledge that he or the brewing industry of which he is a director would assure the completion of the grand opera house.

"I merely meant to say that work of the Grand Opera Committee is progressing so well that I believe the project will be successfully carried through within two years," Faust explained afterward.

"When Mr. Busch agreed to subscribe $50,000 for shares in a grand opera project, he made a condition that the people of St. Louis should raise $400,000 within six months. I believe Mr. Busch intended to subscribe for a building which should be monumental and which should not cost less than $500,000. I do not think he would have contributed $50,000 toward a $200,000 building.

Monumental Building. "Some persons have suggested that the opera house be in the form of an office building or a large apartment or hotel structure. I would not approve of this idea. In my opinion the opera house should be a monument of architectural art, with no outward aspects of commercialism. It might be possible to include in a building of this character a certain number of rooms for use by music teachers and artists, but I would strenuously object to the hotel or apartment house adjuncts.

"If a monumental building to cost not less than $500,000 is assured, without a hotel or apartment house being included in the plans, I will recommend to the executors of the Busch estate that his original plan of subscribing $50,000 be carried out."

BOY IDENTIFIES PRISONER AS INTRUDER IN HOME

Man Arrested After Chase in Which Several Shots Are Fired.

A man arrested at 1 a. m. Thursday, near Leffingwell avenue and Stoddard street, by two policemen, after a chase of four blocks, during which several shots were fired, was identified a few hours later by Reuben Laskey, 11 years old, as the man he had seen in the home of his father, Abraham Laskey, 2737 Gamble street, at 10 p. m. The prisoner said he was Oscar Rothstein and that he lived in a hotel at Fourth street and Lucas avenue.

Rothstein was told to stop by a policeman as he walked from a yard at 122 Leffingwell avenue. He ran, pursued by the policeman. As he emerged from an alley onto Leffingwell avenue Rothstein was captured by another policeman.

The Laskey boy told the police that when he and his father and 20-year-old sister, Beatie, returned home, a man, who had been hiding in the house, left it through the dining room window. Rothstein denied having been in the Laskey home.

HOME HUNTING IS NOT A LIGHT MATTER TO THOSE ENGAGED IN IT!

So much depends on the finding of the right place to buy that, with most people, the selection of a home stands out as the most important business transaction of their whole lives. This gives to ALL REAL ESTATE ADVERTISING an interest that is peculiar and apart. The home-seeker reads your real estate ad EAGERLY, with the hope strong within him that YOUR OFFER is the one he has been waiting for!

But one more essential. The medium to reach the right persons in St. Louis and suburbs the Post-Dispatch circulation assures you offer the widest publicity.

BULL KILLS A FARMER

Animal Drives Horn Through Lung of Another Man.

TOPEKA, Kan., April 16.—John Reedy of Yates Center died yesterday as the result of being gored and trampled by an enraged bull he had purchased.

James Ramsey of Winfield is believed near death as the result of being attacked by a bull later when he went to feed the animal. His dog came to the rescue and drove off the bull after one horn had been driven through the farmer's left lung.

SAYS PUBLISHER TRIES TO INJURE PRESIDENT

Kern Tells Senate McLean's Paper Asked for Unfavorable Comment on Tolls.

WASHINGTON, April 16.—Senator Kern of Indiana told in the Senate Wednesday how a great effort was being made here and in the Middle West to manufacture sentiment against the President and the tolls exemption repeal bill. He said John R. McLean is using his newspapers—the Washington Post and the Cincinnati Enquirer—for that purpose. "I wish to say," declared Kern, "that some of us, particularly from the Central West, observed recently with some interest the columns of interviews from our section published in the Washington Post indicating a great outburst of popular sentiment against the administration's action on the tolls question. Some light has been thrown on the question of whether or not this was a spontaneous outburst by a letter sent by an Indiana editor. The letter reads: "John R. McLean, with his newspapers, is trying to take an undue advantage in serving big business. You will note he does not call for interview from leading manufacturers on the question of free tolls, but invites garbled and misleading statements." Senator Kern read a telegram alleged to have been sent to Elkhart, Ind., to "some reliable newspaper man" by the Cincinnati Enquirer, reading: "File early Friday evening 300 words showing unfavorable sentiment in your section toward President Wilson's stand on Panama Canal tolls. Interview big business men and get them to say something hot."

Simple Home Treatment for Objectionable Hair

(Toilet Talk) Here is a toilet help you should remember, because it may at some time be the means of saving you from embarrassment. To quickly and easily remove hair or fuzz from chin, cheek, upper lip or back of neck, apply a thick paste of water, cornstarch and powdered talcum. Rub the paste on the skin and let it remain about 3 minutes, then wash the skin and let the hair fall out. This treatment is harmless, but caution should be used to see that you get delicate skin.

WHAT WILL YOUR NEW CAR BE WORTH A YEAR FROM NOW?

That's the vital question—no matter whether you expect to sell your car or run it for years. The answer to that question will tell you the new car's real value today. Look in the classified columns of the Sunday papers. See what year-old—even five-year-old—Cadillacs are worth. Compare their depreciation with other cars.

The 1914 Cadillac with its Two-Speed, Direct Drive Axle has achieved—with simplicity, added economy and longer life to mechanism—what others only approximate by adding to complication, running expenses and depreciation. Five-passenger touring, four-passenger phaeton, or two-passenger roadster sell for two thousand dollars, the seven-passenger touring for twenty-one hundred.

HERE IS THE BIG SCENE IN PAGEANT, FOUNDED OF CITY

Pierre Laclede, Auguste Chouteau and His Mother Appear in Act.

INDIANS TRY TO STEAL.

Firm Policy of Early Settlers Toward Missouri Tribe Is Depicted.

The text of the central scene in the Pageant of St. Louis, the founding of St. Louis by Laclede and Chouteau, was made public Thursday by William W. La Beaume, chairman of the production committee. The scene forms the first unit in the second movement of the Pageant, to be produced in Forest Park May 28-31.

As written by Thomas Wood Stevens, this scene contains seven speaking parts. They are Pierre Laclede, his nephew Auguste Chouteau, Laclede's wife, Madame Chouteau, Joseph Mallon, and a boatman, a settler and a Missouri Indian chief. Others appearing on the stage are 100 Indian men, 100 Indian women, 50 Indian children and a party of 40 settlers. At the opening of the scene, nothing is on the stage but the mound. The scene, with stage directions, is as follows:

(CHOUTEAU—This is the place men.

(They make fast the ropes.)

CHOUTEAU—What place, Monsieur Chouteau?

CHOUTEAU—The place where Monsieur Laclede blazed the trees. Here we are to take the goods ashore.

(The crew at once set to work to unload the boat. Chouteau directing them. As the packs are landed, the men set up canvas and board shelters over them; this work progresses as the dialogue is spoken.)

TAILLON (Coming up to Chouteau)—Monsieur Auguste.

CHOUTEAU—What is it, Taillon?

TAILLON—Monsieur Laclede has sent us here. He has told us to take party of you his commands. We do so. You came with him before. We wish to ask what is to be done here. Is it here Monsieur Laclede will have his settlement?

CHOUTEAU: Yes.

TAILLON: And build his house?

CHOUTEAU: Yes.

TAILLON: And why in this place?

CHOUTEAU: He has examined all the land from Fort Chartres to the Missouri. St. Genevieve will not do. It is too far from the Missouri, and there is no place to store the goods.

TAILLON: But here is no place to store the goods.

CHOUTEAU: Monsieur Laclede said to me: "Auguste, go to the place where I blazed the trees. Clear the ground. Build a large shed for the goods, and cabins for the voyageurs. I give you two men you can trust to help you. They are very much. I will come soon." That is what he told me. Taillon, you are one of those two.

TAILLON: My respects. Monsieur Chouteau. We will do as you command.

(He turns to the work, and they raise the side of a large shed. Chouteau watches them for a moment, looking downstream expectantly.)

CHOUTEAU: Ah, Taillon, Monsieur Laclede comes!

(Taillon joins Chouteau. Laclede appears in a canoe, several voyageurs paddling.)

TAILLON: Monsieur Laclede comes! (The men crowd back. Chouteau and Taillon as Laclede lands; they doff their hats and bow.)

CHOUTEAU: You are most welcome, Monsieur Laclede.

LACLEDE (looking at the sheds and work done): Well done, my lad. Taillon, the work moves. My friends in a little while the English will come to take the land across the river. You are all loyal subjects of France. I have chosen this place that you may still be her subjects, in the hope that our village may become considerable hereafter.

(A general murmur of applause from the men.)

You come here willingly, gladly?

(General assent.)

I pledge you what I have, and the good will of our company for your prosperity. Taillon, Marcheteau, Kierceaux, Deschamps—what will you choose to do in our village?

TAILLON: Monsieur Laclede, they are all for trading with the Indians, and growing rich.

LACLEDE: Some must build the houses, some must plant the corn, and some must run the mill.

TAILLON—So I have said. I am a miller, I Joseph Taillon. But to grind flour I must have grain. There must be farmers. Look you, Monsieur, this will not be called your settlement, Laclede's town—No. It will be called Painscourt—short of bread.

LACLEDE—No, my friends—we will give it another name. A name deep in the hearts of our Frenchmen who come here.

(He takes out a map and spreads it before him.)

Look you, here is the plan of my city—for this shall come to be a city in good time. Here is the public square, the GRAND PLACE. Here is the street of the church, high up, on the hill. Ah, you shall see it, my friends—the houses and the towers, the people going about their business, the boats with their cargoes along the river's edge, the steeples and the bells swinging on the Sabbath day. Our city—and we shall name it Saint Louis!

(The men take up the words in a low shout.)

And now—to your work.

(They return to their building, and he goes over to Chouteau.)

Here you will have them begin my house. I will come back soon.

(He goes back to his canoe.)

Goodbye, Auguste.

CHOUTEAU—Au revoir, father.

(As Laclede disappears, the Indians, the Missouri—enter from the left, coming down and surrounding the men eagerly. Some of them start to set up tepees. The chief, with a group of braves, approaches Chouteau.

MUSTEROLE A Magic Ointment for Neuralgia

Ease that throbbing pain, that splitting headache in a twinkling with a little MUSTEROLE.

Try this clean, white ointment (made with oil of mustard) today. Millions have found it a marvelous relief. Millions use it now instead of the old-time mustard plaster. For they know MUSTEROLE does not blister as old-time mustard plasters did.

Best for Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Croup, Stiff Neck, Asthma, Neuralgia, Congestion, Pleurisy, Rheumatism, Lumbago, all Pains and Aches of the Back or Joints, Sprains, Sore Muscles, Bruises, Chills, Frosted Feet, Colds of the Chest (it prevents Pneumonia).

At your druggist's, in 25c and 50c jars, and a special large hospital size for $2.50.

Accept no substitute. If your druggist cannot supply you, send 25c or 50c to the MUSTEROLE Company, Cleveland, Ohio, and we will mail you a jar, postage prepaid.

RUSH & WEBSTER, 794 E. 16th St., New York City, says: "I can highly recommend Musterole to any one suffering from Neuralgia or a cold in the head."

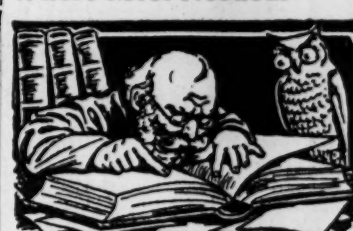

MUSTEROLE

From Thin to Plump—Girls.

The expressions of happiness and gratitude of several of his young lady patients for whom he prescribed the recently successful flesh-forming product known as three grain hypo-nutrient tablets, is related by a physician in one of the medical publications and it comes as a surprise to the ordinary layman to learn the heart throbs of distress which seems to effect so many young people who are abnormally thin. Also to know that the weight can be so readily increased by the use, regularly for several months, of this peculiarly named preparation, now obtainable of the best physicians and apothecary shops in sealed packages with complete instructions for self-administration.—ADVERTISEMENT.

Blood Tonic Has Important Meaning

Puts the Right Sort of Vim Where Most Needed.

To tone the blood means to enable it to throw off accumulated impurities, to increase the red corpuscles and to put the blood-making organs into such active condition as to produce that conscious sensation of what we feel as health. This is the logical effect of using the famous blood purifier, S. S. S. Half the people who meet complaints of weary muscles, stagnant brain, lack of nerve, and a wonderful desire to lay down, are the water you drink. Many have been using Nervine that occasionally hars up the nerves only to dis down again, as the they must. Avoid nerve stimulants. Bear in mind that this worst feeling is due to poor blood, to bacteria in the blood, to the lack of the multiplying of destructive germs in the blood, to the fact that the blood is known as auto-toxemia, that condition where the venous or impure blood accumulates faster than it can be replaced by the red arterial blood. S. S. S. has long been famous as a blood purifier, and its action by elimination of the irritating poisons that infect the blood, is one of the very important things to know. You can get S. S. S. at any drug store, but take no other so-called blood purifier. S. S. S. is purely a vegetable product, and you will make a great mistake to have some enthusiast palm off a mercury, bromide or iodide of potassium preparation that may do you irreparable harm. S. S. S. is prepared by The Swift Specific Co., 525 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. and if you have any deep-seated or chronic blood trouble, write to their Medical Dept. for free advice. It will be worth your while to do so. ADV.

Postmaster Injured in Fight, Dies.
MILLINGS, Mont., April 14.—Kid Fort of Indianapolis, who was injured in a prize fight with Roy Coughlin of Cody, Wyo., is dead. He was knocked down in the seventh round and had struck the floor. From then until he died he was unconscious.

Acquitted of Election Fraud.
CHICAGO, April 14.—Edward J. Mahoney, Assistant State's Attorney, was found not guilty of marking ballots illegally for Macley Hoynes, State's Attorney, in the election of Nov. 5, 1912. The jury returned its verdict after deliberating five hours.

FOLK'S THREAT BRINGS NEW HAVEN WITNESSES TO TAW

They Indicate Desire to Testify in Federal Inquiry Rather Than Be Indicted.

By Associated Press. April 15.—Facing probable indictment and criminal prosecution for refusal to respond to "lawful questions" of the Interstate Commerce Commission in the New Haven inquiry, respecting the operations of the Billard company, some of the recalcitrant witnesses have indicated their willingness to testify.

Joseph W. Folk, chief counsel of the commission, today received a letter from Henry Stoddard of New Haven, Conn., representing that it was "unfair" to his clients for the commission to invoke the criminal statutes.

He felt that, "in all justice," the points in issue ought to be threshed out in a civil proceeding. His clients, it was pointed out, did not wish to be placed under the stigma of an indictment and, rather than suffer such humiliation would give their testimony under protest.

Stoddard is acting as counsel for Harry V. Whipple, president of the Merchants' National Bank of New Haven, and Edward I. Field of New Haven, said to be the president of the Billard company. Indictments against witnesses already were prepared for submission today to the grand jury.

HERE IS THE BIG SCENE IN THE PAGEANT

who is evidently disturbed, but stands his ground.

MISSOURI CHIEF: You come to live on our lands?

CHOUTEAU: This is Monsieur Laclede's land.

MISSOURI CHIEF: What you give us?

CHOUTEAU: I give you nothing. Monsieur Laclede will deal with you, when he comes.

(As they stand speaking, a brave tries to steal a blanket from the packs; Chouteau sees him, shouts at him, and drives him off; as Chouteau turns back, a group of squaws comes up on the other side, whining and begging.)

CHOUTEAU: If you want anything, you must work, as we do.

(The squaws nod assent, the braves turning indignantly away.)

Here, Tallon, bid them help you in the digging of the cellar; we will give them some vermilion when they have done.

(The squaws begin work carrying earth out of the cellar, as the settlers set up the house; the braves and children are continually trying to steal from the packs, and are continually chased away by the men. Enter a group of settlers, right; they see the Indians, and draw together closely, calling to Chouteau.)

A SETTLER: Is this Laclede's settlement?

CHOUTEAU: Yes, Monsieur.

(They consult together, gesturing toward the Indian people.)

Will you not come with us? Monsieur Laclede would welcome you.

SETTLER: We will not come while the Missouris are here. No.

(The settlers go back as they came. The Indians again crowd around Chouteau, begging. He and Tallon are hard put to it to keep them from carrying off the goods. Re-enter Laclede. The Indians fall back as he approaches, and the Chief steps forward.)

MISSOURI CHIEF: Father, will you not sit in council with us, for we wish to make our village here with you.

(Laclede nods, and the Indians sit in council, Laclede and the Chief in the center.)

MISSOURI CHIEF: Father, we are your children. We are hungry and homeless children. We are worthy of your pity. We are like the wild fowl that seek for open water, where they may rest from the storm. We have wandered in many places, but here is the place we like best. And here we have chosen to make our home, with you.

LACLEDE: My children, when you followed the wild fowl to the open water, you followed bad guides. For in the open the eagles can best find you, and swoop upon you, and devour you.

MISSOURI CHIEF: Our father will protect us from the eagles. But you must know that at Fort Chartres are 700 warriors who are your enemies. They wait to fight the English. But if they learn that you are here, they will come and destroy you. I cannot help you. If you would not have your women and children torn to pieces, if you would not be slain, you warriors, you will not follow the wild fowl, but listen to men who are wise. Go back to your old places. I will give you powder and lead that you may hunt on the way. I speak to you as a good father, but I cannot save you from your foes.

MISSOURI CHIEF: Father, our ears have been open. Have pity on our women and children, and give them a little corn. We have heard your wisdom and we will go back to our old village.

(Laclede beckons; Tallon and Chouteau bring out some sacks of corn, red cloth and bags of powder and bullets. The warriors take the gifts. Chouteau then calls the squaws from the cellar and gives them each a little vermilion. The Indians take up their belongings and depart, the warriors going first, the women following with the camp equipage.)

As the Indians disappear Laclede comes down right to greet Madame Chouteau, who comes in with her children in a cart. She is followed almost immediately by a group of settlers and their families, including those who entered before and withdrew on account of the Indians. As Madame Chouteau comes forward toward the center of the stage, Auguste sees her, and with a glad, boyish cry, runs into her outstretched arms.

Together they go into the house, which has been with their encampments and the building of their house.

The next scene in the Pageant is the St. Ange scene, in which there are four speaking characters.
